Dive sites around OZEN LIFE MAADHOO

Explore the stunning dive sites around OZEN LIFE MAADHOO, where crystal-clear waters reveal vibrant coral gardens, tropical fish, and diverse marine life. From graceful manta rays to colorful schools of fish, each dive offers a unique glimpse into the beauty of the Indian Ocean.

Ranthilla

Ranthilla, also known as Kandhooma Thila or Cocoa Thila, is one of the Maldives' top dive sites. Located between Kandhooma and Cocoa Resort Island, this Thila features a reef starting at 15 meters and dropping to 30 meters. Surrounded by overhangs, it's best explored during an outgoing current but is also great for macro life with a slow current. Expect to see white-tip and grey reef sharks, barracudas, jackfish, Napoleon wrasses, sailfish, and eagle rays, along with turtles in the shallows.

20 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO

Advanced divers, preferably with Nitrox certification

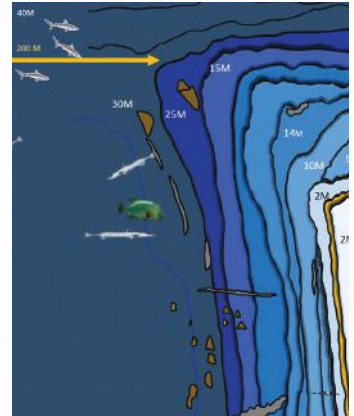

Marked as No. 9 on the map

Guraidhoo Kandu

Guraidhoo Kandu, a Marine Reserve and one of the largest channels in the area, serves as a transit point for sharks and rays. With light to medium currents, you can effortlessly drift past stunning hard coral formations. Expect to see plenty of activity, including jacks, Napoleon wrasses, and grey reef sharks. The vibrant reef is home to hard and soft corals, gorgonians, and anemones, while the reef wall hides honeycomb morays, lobsters, and scorpion fish.

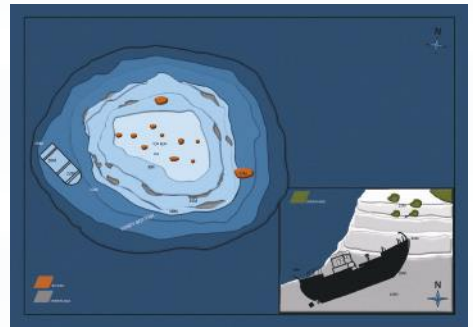

- About 10 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for advanced divers, preferably with Nitrox certification
- Marked as No. 4 on the map

Kuda Giri Wreck

The wreck, with its bow at 18 meters and stern at 30 meters, is covered in corals and sponges. Glass fish often swirl around the captain's hut and engine room, while macro life hides on the wreck's top. Experienced divers can explore the wreck's interior, while the nearby reef offers interesting rock formations and vibrant corals.

- 45 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Advanced divers with Nitrox certification recommended; beginners can explore the reef and wreck's bow
- Marked as No. 12 on the map

Cocoa Corner

With the current inside the Atoll, you're likely to see white-tip and grey reef sharks. Beautiful plateaus of spiky soft corals and stingrays on sandy patches add to the allure. Hawksbill turtles and honeycomb moray eels are common, and the channel features stunning rock formations with abundant corals and large schools of reef fish.

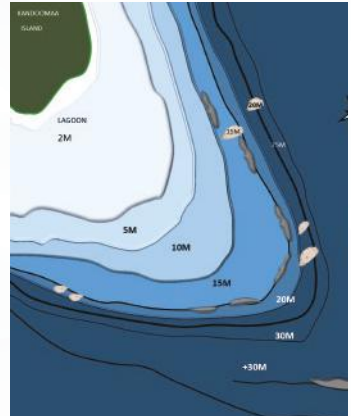

- 20 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels, depending on the current
- Marked as No. 10 on the map

Kandooma Caves

Next to Kandhooma Island Resort, overhangs and caves beckon divers to explore. Schooling batfish can be seen in the larger overhangs, while large green turtles often rest in the smaller caves. Inside the channel, a cave with a 7-meter swim-through offers breathtaking views when the light filters in. Drifting at 25-30 meters, you'll find large coral blocks surrounded by oriental sweetlips, emperors, and copper sweepers.

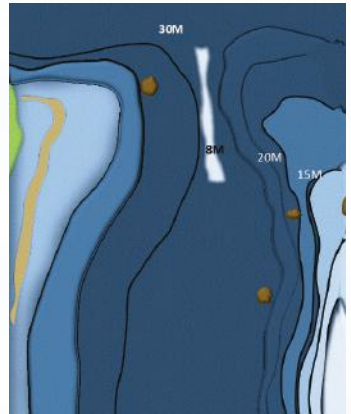

- 15 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels, depending on the current
- Marked as No. 8 on the map

Losfushi Canyon

Losfushi Canyon, located north of Guraidhoo channel, features a sandy entrance at 10 meters, leading into the Atoll where stony corals shelter yellow fine-line snappers. The reef slopes from 8-10 meters down to 30+ meters, where you might spot moray eels, fusiliers, rainbow runners, tuna, and occasionally, a manta during the southwest monsoon.

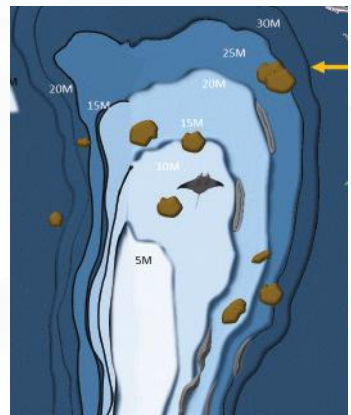

- 10 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels, depending on the current
- Marked as No. 6 on the map

Medhu Faru

Located in the heart of Guraidhoo Channel, this dive begins inside or outside the channel, with the current leading north. Divers can spot gorgonians, whip corals, schools of fusiliers, jackfish, groupers, Napoleon wrasses, and reef sharks. Experienced divers can cross to Guraidhoo South Corner with an incoming current.

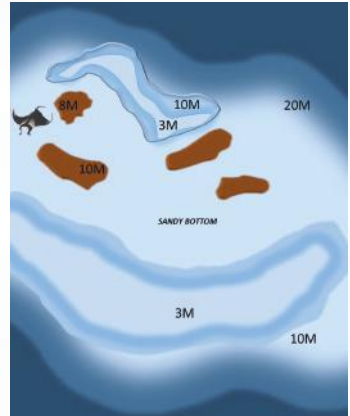

- 10 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels (channel crossing for advanced divers, preferably with Nitrox certification)
- Marked as No. 5 on the map

Manta Point

A half-moon-shaped reef hosts a manta cleaning station during the southwest monsoon, from May to November, when mantas gather in plankton-rich waters. Cleaning wrasses feed on parasites and plankton remnants from the mantas' gills. The reef is also home to giant moray eels, stonefish, scorpionfish, lionfish, and a variety of colorful reef fish. The sandy hills with stony coral colonies are around 12 meters deep, with the cleaning stations at a maximum depth of 18 meters.

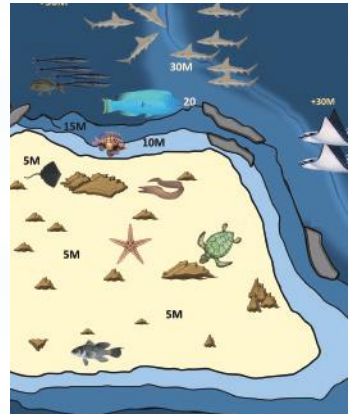

- 10 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels
- Marked as No. 14 on the map

Vaagali Thila

Vaagali Thila features a steep reef adorned with stony corals, teeming with unicorn fish, sweetlips, yellow and five-line snappers, red-tooth triggerfish, mackerels, barracudas, and large tunas. The Thila's top sits at 10 meters, making it ideal for beginners. Grey reef and white-tip reef sharks are often spotted along the outer reef, while adult lobsters hide in small overhangs.

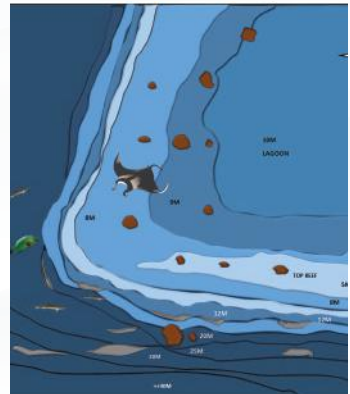

- 40 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for beginners to advanced divers
- Marked as No. 17 on the map

Ranikan

Located in the south of the atoll, Ranikan features caves at 20-30 meters deep, perfect for exploring and spotting macro life. Jackfish, sweetlips, and barracudas are commonly seen, and you might spot a dogtooth tuna in the blue. The top reef, less than 10 meters deep, has blocks where a nurse shark might be found resting. The nearby dolphin lagoon at Rihiveli offers a chance to hear or even see dolphins during your dive.

- 40 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for beginners to advanced divers
- Marked as No. 19 on the map

Ocean

The dive site Ocean extends from Guraidhoo South Corner, with the reef dropping from 8-10 meters to over 30 meters. The wall is vibrant with hard and soft corals, whip corals, and gorgonians, providing hiding spots for moray eels, turtles, and occasionally, stingrays. The current usually weakens further from the corner, making it suitable for both beginners and advanced divers.

- Approximately 15 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for beginners and advanced divers
- Marked as No. 2 on the map

Vilivaruru Giri

The pinnacle rises from a 30-meter sandy bottom to near the surface, making a full circle worthwhile. Schools of batfish and the rare yellow-mouth moray eel are found around coral blocks at 26-30 meters. Overhangs with black corals hide scorpionfish, while fusiliers, jackfish, unicorn fish, and snappers add to the reef's vibrancy. Vilivaruru Giri is also a top night dive spot, with snake eels, mantis shrimps, octopuses, and hermit crabs.

- 15 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for beginners and advanced divers
- Marked as No. 16 on the map

Veli Reef

In front of the OZEN LIFE MAADHOO Water Suite, Veli Reef extends towards Guraidhoo with vibrant coral blocks and abundant reef fish. The sandy bottom, with minimal current, is ideal for beginners. The slope ranges from 2 to 20 meters, and you might spot a friendly turtle among the corals.

- 5 minutes from OZEN LIFE MAADHOO
- Suitable for all levels
- Marked as No. 1 on the map
